

Senior Counsel – Real Estate Office of General Counsel

The University of California, Office of the President invites qualified candidates to apply for an exciting senior level opportunity: Senior Counsel – Real Estate for the Office of General Counsel. The University of California is the state's premier public research university and one of its largest employers. Our campuses are routinely ranked among the best in the world. The Office of the President is the system-wide headquarters of the University of California, managing its fiscal and business operations, supporting the academic and research missions across its ten campuses, labs and five medical centers.

The Office of the General Counsel delivers ethical, timely, efficient, and high quality legal services to the University of California's ten campuses, five medical centers, and the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, as well as to the Board of Regents, the President, Chancellors, and other officers of the University.

This position reports to Managing Counsel, Litigation and Capital Strategies. A successful candidate will be:

- A trusted strategic partner to University business units providing practical advice and alternative solutions to business issues.
- An extraordinary communicator who can advise officers and senior managers of corporate legal responsibilities.
- A skilled negotiator who can negotiate on behalf of The Regents and provide legal counsel for complex transactions.
- A successful collaborator who coordinates with individual UC campuses on matters such as student housing, campus infrastructure, condominiums and vertical subdivisions, investment property management, lease-leaseback developments, donor developments, financing trust structures and ground leases.

Minimum Qualifications for an ideal candidate include:

- Must possess a J.D. from an accredited law school and be a member in good standing of the California Bar.
- Minimum of eight years relevant experience with complex real estate, housing, commercial and multi-use development transactions. .

The University offers a competitive salary and benefits program. To learn more, click here: Working at UC. Qualified candidates - please view the full job description and apply with a resume and cover letter online at <https://jobs.ucop.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=60614>.

For more information please contact Sally Gelini, Senior Recruiter - Talent Acquisition.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.